

Sales price $9.99

Salesprice with discount

Description

F. B. Hole is well known for his concise and biblically sound writings; always Christ centered and winsome, this book is in keeping with that style. Though the author has been for a long time in heaven with his Lord and Savior, his writings have remained in print in one format or another for many years because of their helpfulness to believers. This present collection articles has been brought together for today's reader and the hope is that it introduce his ministry to a new generation.

The chapters have been arranged under three general headings: Devotional, Doctrinal, and Practical Writings.

The reader will be greatly rewarded in reading through and reflecting upon them. A greater appreciation for the Lord Jesus Christ and the privileges and responsibilities of the believer will be gained.

156 Pages - Softcover - Author: F. B. Hole