Description

This little book is based upon the twelve verses of one of the most wellknown prophecies found in the Old Testament : Isaiah 53.

Each verse is presented as a distinct (but connected) meditation for study or reflection. This wonderful prophecy reveals the sufferings of Messiah and the resurrection glories that follow — a Messiah for Israel as well as for the nations. The author has presented this in both a doctrinal and devotional style.

Much of what is contained in this book originally appeared in The Lord Is Near Daily Bible Meditations Calendar.

May the reader be encouraged by these meditations on our wonderful Saviour and His work for sinners!
