Description

"The universe was not pregnant with life nor the biosphere with man. Our number came up in the Monte Carlo game."
Jacques Monod

"To man qua man we readily say good riddance."
B. F. Skinner

Born by chance. Dead by design. Is this the beginning and end of man? If we are to believe two eminent scientists - yes.

Dr. Francis A. Schaeffer, however, believes we needn't be so filled with despair. The truth lies elsewhere - in the Christian view of man.
