

Sales price $4.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

"The child of God is ever in the light, though not always in the sunshine." Mr. Whitherby looks at some of the hindrances to Christians enjoying the love of the Father. True Christian liberty can only be measured by the apprehension of the fullness of Christ's work and His presence before God in heaven for us.

110 pages – Softcover - Author: H. F. Whitherby