Description

We have to work out the truth of God's Word in every area of our lives, also in our marriages and our relationships with each other. The truth in the book of Philippians is the truth of joy in the Christian life. This matter of joy is not the same thing as happiness; happiness depends on what is happening around us. But true God-given joy is something that the Holy Spirit produces within me, in spite of what is happening around me, just as we see in Acts 16.

Joy, rejoice or rejoicing is mentioned at least 16 times in this book. Some form of this word joy is threaded throughout this book. Someone has described JOY as Jesus first, Yourself last and Others in between. This is exactly what is set before us in Philippians and it is the key to marriage and all other relationships!
