Description

Today we are on the verge of one of the most powerful events in human history: Jesus Christ is coming again!

MAYBE TODAY

In the twinkling of an eye, millions of born-again Christians will suddenly disappear from this world and be raptured to heaven. This is the wonderful hope that God presents to us in His Word—and this hope can become reality at any time!

The Lord hasn't given us an exact time for His coming because He wants us to expect Him every day. Church history shows the effects that this expectation can have. But what does it mean for our lives today?

This book challenges the reader to live in active anticipation of the Lord's coming. When that happens, our lives will surely change. We'll do things we wouldn't have done before—and we'll use the short time we have left for eternity!
