

Sales price $14.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

A shorter, highly readable story of the testimony of Christ down through the ages. You will be introduced in its pages to John Huss who was burned at the stake, Huguenots hunted and murdered, and thousands of others faithful under persecution. Christ's power to strengthen His own and sustain His own work shines from every story.

432 pages - Paperback - Author: Theodore William Carron