

Sales price $13.95

Salesprice with discount

Description

The positive assertion is that from the evident purpose of the book, the divine purpose, no other than Solomon could be the author of the Book of Ecclesiastes.

To Him who is "greater than Solomon," to Him who is "above the sun," to Him whom it is the divine purpose of the book to highly exalt above all, would I commit this feeblest effort to show that purpose, and, as His condescending grace permits, further it.

156 pages - Softcover - F. C. Jennings