Description

This pamphlet was written in the early 1900's in leaflet form. Our prayer is that the reprinting of these pages will enable souls to learn of Christ and His truth as seen in the Tabernacle. The author is probably best known for his Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names.

"The whole theme is a prophetic object lesson, a spiritual kindergarten, setting forth the "sufferings of Christ and the glory to follow," and as such, it has a two-fold lesson to teach:

1. How God, who is of "purer eyes than to behold iniquity, and cannot look upon sin," can dwell with the sinner, and display His righteousness in so doing.
2. How the sinner, such as he is, ungodly and without strength, hating God, not subject to His law, neither indeed can be; can be brought into the presence of God, find his home there, and God's righteousness be displayed in having it so."
