Description

The Star in the East was written by J. W. H. Nichols. We are not certain about the exact date of the original publication, but a prior editor suggested that it was written around the late 1930's before World War II. In this little booklet, the author gives an overview of prophetic events, that were thought to be imminent then, but clearly are even closer now!! To help the reader, he has included a chart illustrating the four great world empires with specific reference to the book of Daniel. We trust that you will find this short book a help in your understanding of prophetic events that are unfolding and prepare your heart for the imminent return of the Lord Jesus Christ.
